LONGWOOD COLLEGE

The 1957
VIRGINIAN

CAROLINE DUVALL STONEMAN
Editor-in-Chief

GAYLE LESH PEOPLES
Business Manager

MISS RUTH GLEAVES

Dean of Women

DEDICATION . . .

Her keen insight and understanding of the feelings and problems of each student
Her dignity, poise, and graciousness in carrying out college affairs and in working with those about her
Her innumerable contributions, both tangible and intangible, toward the improvement and strengthening of our college
Her deep interest and concern for anything which involves Longwood and its students
These—all of these have won her a place in the heart of each student at Longwood College, and it is with warm affection that we, the 1957 VIRGINIAN staff, dedicate this annual to Miss Ruth Gleaves, Dean of Women.

FOR E W O R D . . .

Trees speak to us of growth, of strength, of maturity.

Towering far above us, their majestic beauty instills in every man the desire to reach for higher goals and to achieve his greatest aims.

Through countless ages the tree has been symbolic of life and knowledge, forever challenging, forever inspiring us to develop the best that is within us.

The following pages bring to mind trees and youth. You who have beheld the wonder of a tree know of its firmness, of its fruitfulness.

In using this theme in the 1957 VIRGINIAN, the staff of this publication expresses the wish that the college experiences of each student at Longwood will in time bear satisfying and rewarding fruit.

Acknowledgments

As is the case with all things, the old must give way to the new, but before packing away the last of our now "old" manuscript copy, the mounts, empty glue cans, and worn-out erasers in order to make room for the work that will begin on a new annual, we would like to acknowledge our pleasure in being able to give you the 1957 VIRGINIAN.

It is also in order at this time to voice our deep appreciation and to say a well-deserved thank-you to the following people and organizations without whose help this annual would not have been possible:

Mr. T. A. McCorkle, advisor to the VIRGINIAN staff, for his wealth of knowledge, his time, his interest, and his understanding.

Mr. Foster B. Gresham, literary advisor, for his proofreading and excellent literary advice.

Miss Virginia Bedford for her fine help as art advisor.

The student body, faculty, and administration for their support and co-operation.

The staff for the many hours of hard work they have put into the creation of the 1957 VIRGINIAN.

Andre Studio for the photography in the book.

Lynchburg Engraving Company for the engravings and suggestions for the layout and art work.

C. W. Warthen Company for printing the annual.

Agee's Studio for the photographs of May Queen, Maid of Honor, Apple Blossom Princess, and campus views.

Foster Studio, Richmond, for the photograph of Miss Gleaves in the faculty section.

To Carole Stroupe Wirt, editor of the 1958 VIRGINIAN, and Shirley Hauptman, business manager, we wish much success and a staff that will be as efficient and competent as our own has been.
